PROCEDURES FOR SUBMITTING MANUSCRIPTS

The Law Review's Editor-in-Chief will carefully review all manuscripts submitted for publication. Only well-written manuscripts offering original legal analyses will be considered for publication. If the Editor-in-Chief selects an author's submission for publication, a member of the Law Review's Editorial Board will contact the author in writing. The author will receive an Author/Journal Agreement. The Law Review's Board and Staff will begin editing the submission only after receiving a properly executed Author/Journal Agreement.

The Law Review typically publishes one Volume per year containing two Issues. The Law Review accepts unsolicited manuscripts on a rolling basis, so interested authors are encouraged to submit their completed manuscripts as soon as possible.

SUBMITTING AN ARTICLE

By U.S. Mail:

Please submit a hard copy of your manuscript and a disk containing a copy of your manuscript (preferably in Microsoft Word®) to:

Widener Law Review
Widener University School of Law
4601 Concord Pike
P.O. Box 7474
Wilmington, DE 19803-0474

By Electronic Mail

Please send all submissions in Microsoft Word® to: wlr@widener.edu.

- Please include the word "manuscript" or "article" with the article title in the subject line of the email.
- Please provide your name, address, affiliation, biographical information, and acknowledgments on a separate attachment.
- Please use footnotes instead of endnotes or parenthetical citations.
- Please adhere to the most current version of THE BLUEBOOK: A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF CITATION (Columbia Law Review Ass'n et al. eds., 19th ed. 2010).
- Manuscripts submitted for publication will not be returned.

The Law Review will notify all authors whose manuscripts are not accepted for publication.
